

Artistic Freedom under attack: Resistance and Resilience

Film Screening and Discussion on Ukraine & India

Payal Kapadia's film "A Night of Knowing Nothing" (India/France 2021) shows it clearly: artistic freedom presupposes that spaces for art and culture are open, democratic and anti-discriminatory. Repression of artists and cultural workers can manifest itself in many different ways.

A conversation about violations of artistic freedom and alliances of solidarity, focusing on Ukraine and India. With Sarita Jenamani (Pen Austria, Poet), Dariia Kuzmych (artist) & Klara Košťal (Austrian Commission for UNESCO), moderated by Cristina Peregrina.
